Join Mindful Philanthropy for the second event in our series on how philanthropy can support young minds.

Co-hosted with the American Academy of Pediatrics, this session will explore the experience of youth during the COVID-19 pandemic, demystify trauma and its relationship with educational outcomes, and highlight ways to best support youth with experiences of trauma in school settings.

The webinar will include a panel discussion followed by Q&A. The panel will be moderated by Mindful Philanthropy's Executive Director, Alyson Niemann.
